DELEGATES TO QUIT GENEVA; IN DEADLOCK

PROPOSAL OF JAPS FAILS TO SATISFY U. S. AND BRITISH

Will Give Views Before
Adjournment This Afternoon Agreed

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 3. (AP)—The tripartite naval conference tonight reached an impasse, it was stated in authoritative American circles and the last session is planned for tomorrow. This later received confirmation by the Japanese spokesman. It was stated that the delegates mutually and sorrowfully had agreed that no pact could be reached to limit further the armaments of Great Britain, the United States and Japan at this time.

This announcement was made after tonight's meeting of the plenipotentiaries to consider the Japanese compromise proposals. The hour of the final session was set for three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The decision to adjourn the conference tomorrow was brought about by the inability of both Great Britain and the United States to accept clearly the Japanese compromise as a basis of discussion for settling the cruiser question which was the crux of the whole conference.

CHURCH UNITY MEET OPENS WITH NINETY BEING REPRESENTED

Program Under Preparation
Seventeen Years to go
Nineteen Days

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Aug. 3. (AP)—Designed to promote unity among all Christian churches, the world conference on faith and order opened here today with the Right Rev. Charles Henry Brent, Protestant Episcopal bishop for western New York. Speaking in Lausanne's eleventh century cathedral, he pleaded for the removal of the barriers of suspicion and misunderstanding between men of different religions and races.

Nearly 500 delegates of more than 20 churches, established and non-conformist, were present. The Roman Catholic church was not represented.

The program for the conference which has been in preparation for 17 years, covers 19 days. It has been arranged to give every denomination a group a hearing. The leaders of the conference hope to show that the differences among the non-Catholic churches are so trivial that the delegates ought to come together and to have the congress, before adjourning, adopt a resolution in favor of union, which can in turn be referred back to the governing bodies of the various denominations for approval.

Lacy Gardiner, known as the "flying delegate" because she flew to the conference was elected timekeeper, a compliment to her sex which greatly pleased the seven other women delegates. Forty nine different nations have delegates and 10 different languages were heard today.

Some Believe Way Is Now Opened For Campaigns

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—The Herald-Examiner in a copyrighted story today said that the vice-president of the United States, Charles G. Dawes, would accept the Republican nomination for president if tendered him, but that he would not campaign for it nor would he formally announce himself as a candidate.

The newspaper added that the vice-president himself had made no comment but that his intimates had said that he would not campaign for it nor would he formally announce himself as a candidate.

DEFENSE GROUP MAKES STATEMENT ON VERDICT

BOSTON, Aug. 4. (AP)—The Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee early this (Thursday) morning characterized Governor Fuller's decision as "unbelievably brutal" and declared that both he and his advisory committee "must justify themselves by reason and not by partisanship."

William G. Thompson, chief counsel for Sacco and Vanzetti said that he would have no comment to make tonight on the governor's decision. He wished to study the full text before making any statement.

Warden Hendry of the state prison said that he could not notify Sacco and Vanzetti of the decision until tomorrow.

BLAST TRAPS MINERS; MANY THOUGHT DEAD

Sixteen Known Dead As Rescue Work Is Rushed

CLAY, Ky., Aug. 3. (AP)—Sixteen miners were reported killed today in the West Kentucky Coal company's Mine near Clay, where exactly ten years ago, 67 lost their lives in one of the greatest mine disasters in the state.

Today's explosion came late in the afternoon as the 250 miners were partly out of the shaft and late tonight the exact number of dead had not been determined. But from the mine, a mile from here it was reported that 15 bodies had been found in addition to that of J. W. Meyer, 32, whose body was brought to the surface.

Rescuers hastened on, hoping to find and save miners who might still live and left the other bodies for the morgue. First reports said today's explosion was caused by a faulty "shot."

Twenty-four miners were rescued late today, many of them burned and others bruised, but it was said none of their injuries were serious.

The explosion occurred in a part of the mine about half a mile from the shaft and some 250 feet under ground.

Fifteen Trapped
HENDERSON, Ky., Aug. 3. (AP)—An explosion in Mine No. 7 of the Western Kentucky Coal company at Clay, Ky., this afternoon trapped fifteen men and was known to have killed at least one miner. The body of J. W. Meyer, 32, one of the crew of 250 men who were in the workings at the time, was brought to the surface tonight.

Official statements of the company said none of the other men brought up were seriously injured.

Rescue work is being directed by a crew of the United States mine rescue crew of Evansville. Officials expressed belief that the death toll of the explosion would not amount, but reports from the interior of the mine indicated that there was doubt that the men entrapped would be brought out alive.

Charles D. Hillier, of Chicago, Alton, Ill., a deputy sheriff, a deputy sheriff, William Edwards of Pleasant View and William H. and G. T. Anderson and Orrell Porky, all of Peoria, were arrested and taken to Springfield for arraignment.

Prohibition agents reported they found 345 gallons of whiskey being stored in the mine.

There were two stills, one of 600 gallons capacity and the other of 300 gallons. Fermenting was contained 60,000 gallons of mash. Several hundred gallons of alcohol also was seized.

CHANGES MADE AMONG BAPTIST MINISTERS

DEQUIN, Ill., Aug. 3. (AP)—Among changes of Baptist ministers in Illinois announced here today by the Illinois State Baptist convention, were the following:

The Rev. W. E. Willard, resigned as pastor of the Calvary church in River View, Ill., accepts call to Chicago Heights.

The Rev. George Smith resigned at Normal to locate in Chicago; the Rev. J. A. Hartel of Danville, Ill., to Indiana; the Rev. Verne Oglesby of Oremia resigned to assume pastorate of the East church at Decatur.

FIFTEEN ENTERED IN RACE TO HONOLULU

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 3. (AP)—Fifteen aviators, thirteen of whom are expected to brave alone the perils of flying over the Pacific tonight were entered in the great aerial derby for $25,000 in prizes from the mainland to Hawaii on August 12.

Closing of the official entry books at midnight last night found an array of civilian fliers competing for the money offered by James D. Dole, wealthy pineapple grower, for the first two to land on the islands after the 2400 mile hop from San Francisco.

CAN FIND NONE OF
21 WIVES TO TAKE BODY

OSSING, N. Y., Aug. 3. (AP)—George Schultz, 68, Sing Sing's most married inmate, died today and of the 21 women whom he was believed to have married during his career, none could be found to claim his body. Before Schultz died he gave prison authorities addresses of two of his wives, the only two he could remember, he said.

MRS. CHAPLIN SPURNS OFFER FROM HUSBAND

Generous Settlement Turned Down In Divorce Case

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 3. (AP)—Lyndol L. Young, former attorney of Lita Grey Chaplin, testified today that Mrs. Chaplin refused to sign a generous settlement of her divorce suit against Charles Chaplin, film comedian, and insisted upon filing an amended complaint charging him with improper association with a prominent picture actress.

The testimony was given during a hearing on application of the firm of Young and Young for an award of counsel fees for services to the actress prior to its withdrawal from the divorce suit yesterday. Edwin T. McMurray, uncle and chief of counsel for Mrs. Chaplin, bitterly fought admission of Young's testimony on the ground that it was a revelation of confidence between attorneys and client. He demanded that the hearing be continued.

The "prominent motion picture actress" name was not mentioned in the testimony, nor was the amount of the reported settlement. As the latter was understood to have been in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

CLIMAX IN COLUMBIA
FLIGHT HAS APPEARED

PARIS, Aug. 3. (AP)—A climax in the Levine-Broun controversy over the details of the projected flight to America in the trans-Atlantic airplane Columbia appeared today.

Maurice Broun, the French aviator who has been negotiating to act as pilot of the Columbia, had papers drawn up as the first step in an action to compel Charles A. Levine, the Columbia's owner, to carry out the terms of what is characterized as the tentative contract. Broun wishes Levine to sign a final agreement which the aviator says was provided for in the first arrangement.

Mr. Levine remained inaccessible to all callers excepting those who had special appointments with him at his hotel. He exchanged a few words with Broun at the latter's flying field today and later it was stated in the Broun camp that Levine had said he would call on the aviator's lawyer.

The lawyer said this evening, however, that he had heard nothing from the owner of the Columbia.

In the case gets into court, it is said that the Columbia will be kept under seal until the case is settled.

FEAR MEN KILLED IN FREIGHT TRAIN CRASH

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Aug. 3. (AP)—Finding of the personal belongings of railroad men in the wreckage of a freight train in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, tonight convinced searchers that there were one or more dead under some of the cars. A wrecker arrived tonight from Savannah, Ill., and the work of disentangling the wreck began. It probably will be completed by midnight. It was said.

Ten injured employees of the road are in a local hospital tonight suffering from cuts, bruises and contusions. The condition of some are critical but physicians did not believe any would die.

John Liston, one of the injured, told newspapermen he counted the number of men who boarded the train at Marion. He was certain there were 14.

Ten are in a hospital, another said to have been accounted for at Covington and three missing which it is believed, may be found in the wreckage.

ILLINOIS MINERS AT WORK WITH AGREEMENT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 3. (AP)—About 20 of the more than 225 producing coal mines in Illinois are working under separate agreements between operators and miners, Harry Fishwick, president of the Illinois miners, said today.

Some of these were worked to capacity last month, averaging 11.5 days as compared to the usual average of 20 days. Production has dropped from about 9,000,000 tons monthly to 2,500,000 tons, and only 2,500 of the state's 15,000 miners are employed in mining.

MEN SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR MURDER OF TWO IN ROBBERY

Governor Leaves for Real
Before Decision is Handed Down

BOSTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Gov. Alvan T. Fuller tonight refused executive clemency to Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, sentenced to death for the murder of a shoe factory paymaster and his guard, in South Braintree on April 15, 1929. Their reprieve expires on August 10.

The governor's decision, announced at 11:25, concluded with these words:

"As a result of my investigation I find no sufficient justification for executive intervention."

"I believe with the jury, that these men, Sacco and Vanzetti, were guilty and that they had a fair trial. I furthermore believe that there was no justifiable reason for giving them a new trial."

The governor was not present when his decision was given out by his secretary, Herman A. MacDonald. He had come to the state house at 8:26, but remained only 25 minutes, leaving the secretary to prepare and distribute the copies.

"I am very tired," he said, as he left to visit his little son who is ill at a hospital.

"I will have no further statement. The decision will speak for itself."

Later in the evening the governor was resting in retirement. It was understood that a guard of state officers had been placed at his summer home at Ite Beach, N. H., and also at the Massachusetts General Hospital, where Alvan T. Fuller, junior, is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis.

In a long document containing his decision the governor says after reviewing in part the history of the case:

"This appeal, presented to me in accordance with the provision in the constitution of our commonwealth, has been considered without intent on my part to sustain the courts. * * * I realized at the outset that there were many sober minded and conscientious men and women who were genuinely troubled about the guilt or innocence of the accused and the fairness of their trial. * * *

Appointed Committee
"I believed that I could best reassure these honest doubters by having a committee conduct an investigation fairly and independently of mine, their report to be made to me and to be of help in reaching correct conclusions. * * *

I asked to serve on that committee President Abbott Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University, former Judge Robert Grant and Professor Samuel W. Stratton of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. * * *

The public owes these gentlemen its gratitude for their high minded, unselfish service on this disagreeable and extremely important problem. (Continued on Page Four)

IOWA BACKS LOWDEN
ON CAL'S STATEMENT

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 3. (AP)—Announcement of President "Cal" Lowden that he does not choose to run in 1928 left its reverberations in Iowa today.

W. L. Stern, chairman of the Republican state central committee, said "by President Cal's declining to be a candidate, this state will undoubtedly be united for Frank Lowden."

"Lowden doesn't have a Chinaman's chance," was the answer of J. Ray Fines, chairman of the Democratic state central committee.

Senator Brookhart, declared that the successful candidate would be one who could right economic ills that had complicated the agricultural situation. "Such a man," he said, "is Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska."

A. C. Gustafson, chief clerk of the Iowa house, declared that "the president's decision points definitely to the success of the Lowden movement."

The president's withdrawal will open the field to all candidates," commented Gov. Hammill. "Frank Lowden represents the cause of the middle-west."

UP TO THE PEOPLE

COOLIDGE—It is a general feeling that the statement of President Coolidge, "I do not choose to run for president in 1928," leaves the choice of the next national executive entirely up to the people. Mr. Coolidge has done what he has done in the presidency for the past four years. Left his own years of studying entirely out of the question. He is not seeking the office, but he has not made it impossible for the office to seek him.

The manner in which Mr. Coolidge made his stupendous announcement was typical of him as he has conducted the nation over the past four years. He did not waste words, he said exactly what he meant to say, and then stepped out of the picture, leaving the people to form their own opinions. He gave no reasons or interpretations, and it is probable that he will give none in the future.

Mr. Coolidge did not preface his statement with a review of his political record. That speaks of itself, and he intends that it shall continue to do so. It is a clean record of service, showing close attention to the details of his administration and a faithful performance of his duty as he saw it. The president's statement was at once characteristic of the president, and the American people cannot fail to be impressed with that fact, for which they will respect and honor him the more.

THE "AIR FLIVVER"

On next Sunday a Milwaukee man will make a test trip in a tiny monoplane on which he has been working for several weeks. The plane, he says, can be produced and sold for $1,000 if it proves practical. It can make a speed of eighty miles an hour and will use only two gallons of gasoline an hour. At this rate a round flying trip from Chicago to Milwaukee and return would cost only 75 cents.

Should this little machine prove practical, airplanes may become as thick in the air as automobiles on the ground. But the regulations required to govern airplane traffic will be even more strict than those on auto traffic.

prevent loss of life thru the "wildcat" flying of unlicensed pilots. In the past eight persons have been killed in and around Chicago in airplane accidents. The piloting of a plane involves even more responsibility than driving a car, because there is no set route of travel, and persons on the ground below have no protection.

The recent flights across the Atlantic have quickened the public interest in aviation. Even so, the people must be made to understand that if they are going to fly, they must learn how before they attempt to navigate the air as independent pilots in their own private planes.

TREAT 'EM ROUGH
The Chicago Crime Commission has compiled a list of 100 professional criminals of the city, studied their habits, their habits and their pedigrees, and sent recommendations to the Chicago police and detective chiefs to treat these crooks rough. They are to be arrested on every possible occasion and for every possible charge. Police know them and can get them almost any time.

This is a move to eradicate the professional criminal, the person who is known to be a crook, a murderer, robber or what not. Police know these people as "suspect" characters, and when a crime is committed, they are methodically picked up and gridded off by the authorities in doubt as to the perpetrators.

But the commission desires that such people shall be made to feel that they are not wanted, that society disapproves of them and intends to make systematic war upon them. Therefore, they have been tolerated, but now they are to be hunted. This is the correct method, and it is to be hoped that Chicago will follow it consistently. If the city adopts this policy, there will undoubtedly be a decrease in crime.

PRESERVING WILD LIFE
Wisconsin has a new law providing for the flooding of extensive marsh lands in the state, to be used as preserves for wild life. Such projects are also under consideration in Illinois, and there are plans by which it might be possible to create a vast interstate park along the Mississippi river, which would shelter the fast disappearing wild fowl and game of the central west.

Of course the zoos in our large cities keep specimens of the wild American fauna, but many of the animals in their wild state and the town also, it allowed to propagate, would in time add greatly to the game supply. Sometime ago in the Denver city park, the writer saw a single huge buffalo, a sort of living memorial to the vast herds of bison which once roamed the American western prairies.

To think of the wasteful destruction of our wild game, and especially the buffalo herds, is enough to make the heart sick. Only by the most careful conservation of wild life can this country ever atone for the wanton waste thoughtlessly permitted by those who were busy making their fortune in a new country.

A NEW DICTATOR
Rumania boasts a boy king, but she also has a dictator. He is Premier Ion Bratianu, who is rapidly assuming the powers of a lone ruler. The Premier saw to it that the regents chosen to rule during the minority of King Michael were weaklings. He selected a secret regency of his own, and now he is pushing the two other members of it into the background.

Some students look to Bratianu to assume as much importance in Rumania as Mussolini has assumed in Italy. Just how this will affect the always delicate situation in the Balkan states remains a question. A dictator in Rumania will naturally strengthen that country, perhaps to an extent that will disturb the close-packed group of small nations adjoining it. Then, too, the great powers will hardly countenance the growth of any nation as small as Rumania.

FLY-TOX NECESSARY
Wars Are Less Fatal Than Common Insects

"Flies have caused more deaths than all wars," says Major Ramsom of the Medical Department of the United States Army. "Since the fly came into the world it has been synonymous with epidemics of pestilence and disease. And with Fly-Tox it is a very simple matter to keep the house of fly or keep it fresh and clean. Free of insect taint. Fly-Tox is the scientific insecticide developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Fellowship. Simple instructions for killing all house fly insects on blue labeled bottles. Insist on Fly-Tox."

Deaf Inventor Builds Own Set So His Fingers Can Hear!

Fred J. Shamesey of Rochester, N. Y., listening to a radio concert with his fingers.

By NEA Service

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Fred J. Shamesey of this city listens nightly to radio entertainment with his fingers.

His ears won't do, for Shamesey lost his speech and hearing at the age of six, after a severe illness.

But that didn't handicap him. As soon as radio became popular, he turned his inventive genius to building a radio receiver that he could use, despite his affliction. He first built a small tube set and then constructed a unique cone-type loud speaker that would enable him to "hear" by feeling the vibrations on the parchment.

He made this from parts of a regular reproducing unit, fashioned after an invention of his own and connected to an undersized cone parchment.

Sitting at his set, Shamesey places his fingers on the cone and proceeds to tune in a station by means of his touch. Although he can distinguish talking in his reception he can't tell what it's all about.

But he's as efficient in interpreting the musical sounds that come through his loud speaker, as any more fortunate radio fan is. He can easily distinguish the various instruments being played, and has become a severe critic on the type of music and the manner of playing.

Shamesey lives here all alone, and therefore depends on his regular reproducing unit, fashioned after an invention of his own

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Author of "You Can," "Take It," "Up."

BETTER THAN GOLD

A tiny sphere of watery substance, moulded into an opalescent drop of morning dew, awaiting upon a blade of grass and bearing its heart against the taps of the silvered sunbeams, bringing to earth the breath of the living God.

This is a picture better than gold. A child at play. A reared doll. A sand heap. Tin balls, shovels, a cart. Gentle winds scattering the scattered seeds of childhood's dreams. Flowers, tossing their laughter through the tent. "But not smile!" the little teeth like flower stamens in the perfumed blossom of her mouth.

To own such a scene is better than gold. The flowers of the field, so mystic in their meanings, their vaporous talk in a language that only flowers know, bursting their beauty through blishes into the silent air of the day and night, each little myriad colored coat a more melody, like a hidden jewel.

These are better than gold. The blue of the sky after a summer rain, the sapphire of the sea, the silent star-drift of the milky way, the trickling tears from a weeping heart, the sweetened song of the bird that has lost its mate, the spreading glory of the dying sun, floating clouds that play and fold their robes in warmth about the dreams of men and women. Crystals woven into winter snow.

Each and all how much better than gold! Life, vibrant, full of hope. An appreciative spirit. An unselfish love. An unspoiled mind. A single-fried, frank, and a desire to serve. Not until we come to feel these things, as gifts from a source higher than any reach of ours, can we have next to the great God, and say in our hearts of hearts that what we have is far—

Better than gold.

MODERN, CONVENIENT, AND YET QUAINLY OLD-FASHIONED

A quality charm does "The Winchester" achieve by the graceful slope of its roof, reminiscent of colonial homes. But eminently modern is its plan, with convenient breakfast nook, spacious living room, plenty of closet space and an extra room up under the roof's peak that would appeal tremendously to children for a play room. A cheery bay window assures abundant light and air for the big living room and a side porch gives a certain welcome privacy. "The Winchester" can be built for between $6,000 and $7,500.

More information about "The Winchester" may be had from the Standard Homes Company, Colorado Building, Washington, D. C.

DENIES SACCO AND VANZETTI CLEMENCY AFTER REVIEW OF CASE

"The court proceedings in this case may be divided into two parts: first, the trial before the jury with Judge Thayer presiding; second, the hearings on the succession of motions for a new trial which were addressed to the judge and passed upon by him. * * * The attacks on the proceedings and on the motions for a new trial are in substance that the judge was biased and unable to give the motions fair and impartial consideration."

Sets Three Goals
"The inquiry that I have conducted has had to do with the following questions: Was the jury trial fair? Were the accused entitled to a new trial? Are they guilty or not guilty? As to the first question, complaint has been made that the defendants were prejudiced and convicted because they were anarchists. As a matter of fact, the issue of anarchy was brought in by them as an explanation of their suspicious conduct. Their counsel, against the advice of Judge Thayer, decided to attribute their actions and conduct to the fact that they were anarchists, suggesting that they were armed to protect themselves, that they were about to start out, at 10 o'clock at night, to collect radical literature and that the reason they lied was to save their friends."

"I have consulted with every member of the jury, now alive, eleven in number. They considered the judge fair; that he gave them no indication of his own opinion of the case. Affidavits have been presented claiming that the judge was prejudiced. I see no evidence of prejudice in his conduct of the trial. That he had an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused after hearing the evidence is natural and inevitable."

Overruled Objections
"The charge of the judge was satisfactory to the counsel for the accused and no exceptions were taken to it. The supreme judicial court for the commonwealth has considered such of the more than 250 exceptions taken during the course of the trial as counsel for the accused chose to argue and overruled them all, thus establishing that the proceedings were without legal flaw."

"The next question is whether newly discovered evidence was of sufficient merit to warrant a new trial. Their counsel filed and argued before Judge Thayer seven distinct supplementary motions for a new trial, six of them on the ground that newly discovered evidence all of which were denied. 'I am convinced that they do not and I am further convinced that the presiding judge gave no evidence of bias in denying them all and refusing a new trial.'"

"I give no weight to the Medeiros confession. It is popularly supposed he confessed to committing this crime. In his testimony to me he could not recall the details or describe the neighborhood. 'I am convinced that the motions for a new trial do not give any valid reasons for granting it and I am further convinced,' etc. as sent."

"The next question, and the most vital question of all, is that of the guilt or innocence of the accused. I believe with the jury in the Bridgewater case that Vanzetti was guilty and that his trial was fair."

"The South Braintree crime was particularly brutal. The murder of the paymaster (factor) and the guard (Berardelli) was not necessary to the robbery. The murders were accomplished first, the robbery afterward."

"Vanzetti, when arrested on May fifth, had in his hip pocket a fully loaded revolver. Sacco had a loaded pistol tucked into the front of his trousers and 20 loose cartridges which fitted this pistol. Upon being questioned by the police, both men told what they afterward admitted was a tissue of lies."

Believes Trial Fair
"As the result of my study of the record and my personal investigation of the case, including my interviews with the large number of witnesses, I believe with the jury that Sacco and Vanzetti were guilty and that the trial was fair. 'This lack of review has been a laborious one and I am proud to be associated in this public service with clear-eyed witnesses, unafraid to tell the truth and with jurors who discharged their obligations in accordance with their convictions and their oaths.'"

Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 3. (AP)—President Coolidge is not expected to intervene in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti. He always has held that it was a case belonging wholly within the jurisdiction of the Massachusetts courts.

While no extra guards have been placed about the president, it was regarded as likely that every precaution would be taken to prevent persons reaching him who might desire to solicit his influence.

SAYS KAISER WILL NOT RETURN TO REPUBLIC

BERLIN (AP)—So long as there is a republic in Germany, Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm II won't return to his native land, even though legal restrictions barring him be removed. This opinion was expressed by Lieut. General von Cramon in the course of the public discussion over extending the Defense of the Republic Act.

"The whole discussion," he says, "as to whether the Kaiser may or will return to Germany is absolutely futile. So long as Germany holds to the republican form of state, he cannot and will not come back."

"The Kaiser takes the position that he was destroyed against his will and renounced the crown under duress. Were he today to request the German government to permit him to visit Germany, or were he, in case the ominous restriction be removed, to return to his fatherland, this would be tantamount to his recognizing the republican government as such and to his renouncing all his rights voluntarily."

CAL REMAINS SILENT ABOUT HIS DECISION

The other school of thought, which includes men just as close to the president—men also from Massachusetts—and more significantly his close friend and political manager, William M. Butler, is just as convinced that Mr. Coolidge would accept the nomination if tendered him, altho he will not make a race for it.

Laughs Heartily at Movies
In the summer white house itself, there is no discussion whatever as to between the President and Mrs. Coolidge or their guests, of the statement. Last night the president had Governor W. W. Bulow, the Democratic executive of this state and Mrs. Bulow as dinner guests at the lodge. Neither Governor Bulow nor his wife had heard of the announcement before they went to the summer white house and it remained for them to find out about it when they returned home late in the evening and saw for the first time the afternoon papers.

Indicative of the apparent relief Mr. Coolidge feels in getting the announcement off his chest is the information that he surprised even Mrs. Coolidge last night by the hearty manner in which he laughed while witnessing a comic moving picture at the same lodge.

"I do not think Mr. Coolidge was playing with that subject," referring to the question of his candidacy.

MYSTERIOUS BUNK

Once in a blue moon now some bright, old-fashioned cynic says: "Aw, I never read the advertisements. They're full of bunk."

But when one starts to look for it, the "bunk" in advertising shows a mysterious tendency to be absent. Specimens of it are hard to locate.

The reason for that is simple. Bad goods cannot be successfully advertised. To stand up under the pitiless glare of publicity, merchandise must be honest. It must live up to its promises. Otherwise you would quickly cease to buy it.

So advertisers discovered long ago that for them, too, honesty was the best policy. More!—the only possible policy, if they were to remain advertisers!

Read the advertisements. They are not full of bunk. On the contrary, they are full of honest information and interesting news. They show you ways to be more comfortable. They make life easier. They help you to be happier and healthier. They teach you prices and values.

No doubt about it—advertisements do you many a service. Read them every day!

Advertisements convey honest information about honest products—it will pay you to read them.

MODISH MITZI

Nothing Can Stop Her

By Jay V. Jay

Pastel pink is so smart for midsummer wear that Mitzi pulls on her gloves with a most satisfied air. Her coat is pastel pink and her hat is white with pastel pink trimming. She feels admirably equipped for a strenuous day in town and looks at the Goofy absent-mindedly as he reminds her of tennis.

Polly reminds Mitzi that there is going to be a dance tonight—why doesn't she go to town tomorrow? Mitzi is sorry but her trip is important. The thought doesn't keep her from admiring Polly's pastel pink chiffon, though, with its flounced skirt and bow trimming. Polly's hat is black milan.

Won't Mitzi have tea with Eleanor? Mitzi is so sorry, but she simply must go up to town today. Mitzi compliments the owner of this pastel pink georgette dress trimmed with a wide caplet and pleats and feels that she has done her duty by the invitation. This hat is natural milan.

The Goofy drives her to the station musing gloomily upon this trip to town. She will probably have dinner with some other chap. And Mitzi in her wide-brimmed felt hat and unlined flannel coat thinks she looks much too well not to have dinner with some other man—and the rest of the drive is silence!

COMMITTEE REPORTS TO C. OF C. DIRECTORS

The big Morgan county fair, to be given this year Sept. 13 to 15, was one of the subjects for discussion when Pres. Dolear called the Chamber of Commerce directors to order Wednesday night.

Chairman Lukeman presented for the agricultural committee the proposal for the merchants organization to undertake a ticket sale for the fair. This matter will be further discussed at a meeting of the commercial committee of which J. W. Merrigan is chairman, to be held soon. The directors approved the plan proposed.

A report was read by Secretary Welch from E. E. Crabtree, chairman of the railroad day committee, indicating that all the railroads are interested in the proposed railroad day picnic and would like to have it in the latter part of the month of September. The secretary also presented reports on behalf of Cole Rowe as chairman of the civic stunt night committee, and the firemen's convention committee, stating that the necessary preparations are under way.

Chairman Lukeman of the agricultural committee reported unusual interest in the farmers' picnic. He said that the suggestion had been made that instead of holding the picnic at Nichols park, that it be held on the grounds of the Jacksonville State Hospital, which offers many conveniences. Dr. Hill has expressed his willingness for a dairy exhibit of special interest to men from the farm, and still another exhibit which will appeal to women.

The commercial committee is soon to begin active work in connection with the agricultural committee both for the farmers' picnic and for the fair.

JACKSONVILLE MAN BREAKS QUINCY JAIL

Sam Gray, Well Known in Local Police Circles Makes Sensational Escape From Adams Jail—Ask Local Officers to Locate Him.

Local police received word yesterday from police at Quincy to be on the watch for one Sam Gray, colored, who is reported to have escaped from the jail there in a stolen police car. Gray is a native of Jacksonville, where he made his home until the last few years. He was a prisoner in Quincy on a charge of stealing a Springfield car when he made a break from the jail. The Quincy police automobile was recovered in Hannibal, Mo., by police there but not until after it had been wrecked by the fleeing prisoner, Gray escaped.

The escape was made Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock, when the prisoner in some as yet unexplained manner unlocked the door to the bull pen, in which he was confined and made his way to the police Buick touring car parked nearby.

The first information that the colored man had escaped, came when a Quincy officer saw the big police car speeding thru the streets of the city. The policeman called the department to learn where the "hurry up" call was and found that the police were not making the run.

After a search at the jail disclosed that Gray had escaped from his cell in which he was sleeping, just on the left pen. Hannibal police were immediately notified of the escape and told to watch the bridge, as it was believed that Gray might head toward that city to see his mother, who now resides there. Springfield, Jacksonville and other cities were also notified to be on the lookout for the man.

Hannibal police became aware of the presence of Gray in their city when he ran over four fire hoses used in fighting a fire. They gave chase, firing their guns as they rode. After a chase thru various streets Gray, in trying to make a sharp turn ran the big car into the porch of a residence, tearing away the foundation of the porch and damaging the car. He escaped in the darkness. An investigation is now being conducted to find how he escaped from the jail.

Gray is well known in this city, having spent the early years of his life here. He was convicted on a charge of public intoxication in this city about six years ago, after several ladies had been thoroughly frightened by the youthful perpetrator.

He was sent to St. Charles where he spent two years and was released. Later he stole an automobile in St. Louis, was paroled and later served several months in the Peoria county jail on a theft charge.

The alleged theft of a Springfield car was the last charge placed against him. It is thought by Quincy police that Gray is a member of an automobile thief ring.

SWIFT EXECUTIVE IS WEDNESDAY SPEAKER

T. F. Canfield, Eastern Manager of Produce Houses Delivers Second of Five Talks Series

Speaking on the subject of the history of the produce department and its policies, T. F. Canfield, manager of the eastern territory of the Swift Produce Houses, gave the second of a series of five talks yesterday morning to the employees of Swift and Company at the plant. Similar talks are being given in the eighty plants of the company throughout the country. Mr. Canfield began his talk by telling of the aims of the company, which are first, to make a fair profit and second, to do efficient work and serve the public well. In carrying out these aims there are a number of responsibilities, which concern all. The employees are responsible to the company for a good day's work and the company is responsible to the producer, who is entitled to an efficient market to the consumer, who in turn must have grade products.

In giving the history of the produce department, which is thirty years old, Mr. Canfield related how long ago L. S. Swift had realized the increasing value of perishable products and noticed the inefficient way in which they were being handled. The value of the poultry business in 1900 was $218,000 and in 1925 the business had increased to $1,118,000. Since 1900 the amount of butter manufactured and consumed has increased and the amount coming from the farm has decreased. Mr. Canfield estimates the production now as 4,326,000 pounds per week or 3,000 pounds per hour. Perishability of the products is one of the important steps to be considered as spoilage in any of the different steps in the trade could lower the grade of production.

Mr. Canfield completed his talk with the statement that to have efficient work there must be co-operation, confidence and team work among all those employed in the company. The three different departments of the plant are, the purchasing department, the operating section and the distributing and selling departments.

TYPHOID SITUATION HERE MUCH BETTER

The typhoid situation in this city is clearing up in a satisfactory manner, according to an announcement at the local health department yesterday. Aside from the cases in one family, there has thus far been less typhoid in the city than at the same time last year.

Two new cases have been reported recently, but one of these was contracted out of the city. People who are taking vacations these days are warned to be careful about drinking water from unknown wells and drinking milk where they know nothing of the safety of the supply. Much typhoid is contracted in this way. The best precaution for vacationists is vaccination.

Press Forfeit To State Brings Tie

By playing an ineligible man in their game with the State Hospital last night, the Press team threw away a chance to clinch the National League banner and went into a tie with the Capps Nationals for first place. A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Twilight League was hastily called last night when it was found that the Press had used an ineligible man and orders were issued to play off the tie Friday. The Press won the game with the Veterans by a score of 7 to 4.

Harrison, the man who was used by the Press team last night had not been entered on the roster of the Press team at any time during the season it was disclosed by an examination of the records. The Capps National manager, who was present at the game, questioned his eligibility and when the matter was brought before the board, it was decided that the rules had been abrogated and the game should be forfeited.

It was not decided definitely last night when the Little World's series to decide the championship of the Twilight League would be played. It is probable that the beginning will be postponed until the beginning of next week, but no action was taken.

Friday's game will be played on the State Hospital grounds between the Press and the Capps Nationals.

Again without the services of Pitcher Edlich, who formerly was a twirler for the St. Louis Browns, the State Hospital was doomed to go into the game on the short end of the dopes. The Press took full advantage of Williams' offerings in the first frame to score three runs, two singles and a double, connected with an error by the Veterans first sacker, brought in the runs.

The State Hospital nine was fighting hard, however, getting one run in the first inning when Don Bean, the manager, socked out a four base drive. For the next two innings both teams went scoreless, the Press scoring again in the fourth, getting two runs when Baugh, former I. S. D. hurler, singled, Leeper doubled and Fox singled.

Again in the fifth the Press scored a pair, Haney singling Baugh getting on through an error at first base, and Leeper crashing out his third double of the contest to score the two runners.

The Veterans opened a rally in the fifth inning, two men scoring on a triple and a two base hit. Heavy hitting honors going to the Veterans, their batsmen hitting one home run, two triples and a double. However, the Printers were satisfied with little singles, Dowsy, Leeper, Press manager, having a perfect night at bat with three doubles, the remainder of the hits being singles. "Dusky" Baugh, speedy I. S. D. athlete, pilfered four bases during his three trips around the bags.

PITCHING DUEL GOES TO BOSTON RED SOX

White Sox Fielding Lets Humble Reds Win 2 to 1—A's Take Pair From Indians As Yanks and Tigers Split.

BOSTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Rothrock's hitting was the main factor in Boston's 2 to 1 victory over Chicago here today. His single in the first developed into the first Red Sox run and his single in the seventh brought in what proved to be the winning run. Thomas and Ruffing fought an old fashioned pitching duel but the Red Sox fielding was superior.

Largest Mid-week Crowd
NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—The Yankees divided a double-header with Detroit today before 40,000 fans, coming out in front by 8 to 6 in the final struggle after losing the first 6 to 5. It was the largest mid-week crowd of the season and Lou Gehrig was loudly applauded when he drove in home runs, one in each game, raising his season's total to 37. Gehrig now is three ahead of Ruth.

A four run drive polished off by Heilmann's four bagger with Manush on base in the fifth inning decided the Tiger's victory. New York had bunched five hits including Gehrig's first home run for five runs in the second inning but could do little with Stoner after that.

Pipgras hurled a good game thru eight innings into the second contest and then gave way to Moore as the Bengals staged a 4 run rally in the final session.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—Lou Gehrig corralled two home runs today during the Yanks double bill with the Tigers, one coming in each game, to boost his total to 37, three more than Babe Ruth's pile. By failing to connect for a long distance poke today, Ruth tumbled to nine runs behind his 1921 record year.

"FAN BREEZES"

That's what the prize fight fans are saying who had planned their vacations to begin on Sept. 18.

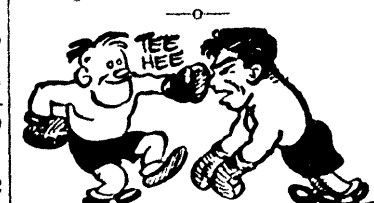

They thought that they were going to get to see a big mauling bee and at the same time enjoy a good vacation.

Talk about fights.

Guess old man Rickard hasn't been busy this year.

Beginning early this year he staged a regular tournament to decide who would meet Tunney this fall.

Dempsey drew a bye in the first few rounds and came through in the semi-finals to get the battle for the finals.

Those people who feel that Soldier's Field, in Chicago is going to be desecrated by allowing Dempsey to fight in it, will be pleased with a result like the following.

It was pretty tough skidding for "I" when he hit the canvas.

Uncle Walt has his bid in for two ringside seats now, but they are for some one else.

Uncle Walt says he will be right on the job here that night and there is going to be some snappy service given to the fight fans who congregate in front of the Journal office.

However, if you like to see some real golf played, better be on hand to see the match between Cary Vise and Clifford McGraw at the Nichols Park links today.

Justice Wright defeated Leo Flood in their match yesterday and the winner of today's match will meet Wright in the final round of 36 holes to be played probably Sunday.

Too busy—

BRAVES UNABLE TO STOP HITTING CUBS

Braves Hammer Trio of Win-Pitchers for 12 to 1—Jesse Haines Wins Sixteenth Game for Cards—Pirates Win.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—The Boston Braves, fresh from three straight victories over the Chicago Cubs, were unable to stop the Chicago Cubs from hammering a trio of Boston twirlers for 15 hits and an easy 12 to 1 victory today in the first game of the series.

Charley Robertson, of no-hit fame, became wilted in the third inning and was replaced by Wertz with the bases loaded and none out. Grimm greeted him with a double which sent three runs across the plate clinching the game for the Cubs. Chicago continued its attack on Wertz and Grimm, retiring before the tide was out and also hammered Goldsmith, the third Boston twirler.

Carlson worked in easy fashion and was given perfect support by the visitors, saving themselves in a shutout when Fourrier singled. Brown's sacrifice and Farrell's double netted a run. It was Carlson's eighth victory in ten starts since he joined the Cubs from the Phillies.

Paul Waner's home run with two on base was the decisive blow of the rally. The Phils scored their six runs in the first four innings, driving three private pitchers out of the box. Joe Dawson, however, checked the visitors thereafter and was credited with the victory.

WRIGHT BEATS FLOOD IN NICHOLS TOURNEY

Country Club Goller Wins 3 up And 1 in Graveling With Tunney—Honors of Playing in Nichols Open Finals.

Coming into his putting stride on the last three greens in his match with Leo Flood yesterday afternoon, Justice Wright defeated the Nichols Park golfer 3 up and one to play in seventeen holes. Wright will meet the winner of the Vice-McGraw match which will be played this afternoon.

Wright broke the ice in taking holes when he defeated Flood on the fifth hole. The other holes had been halved and the following two holes were halved. Wright gaining another hole in the match when he came out one stroke better on the eighth hole. Flood won the ninth to enter the final round one down.

Flood had a perfect drive off the first tee in the second round and won the tenth hole, making the match even up. Wright won the eleventh hole to take the lead again and the next hole was halved. Flood drove on the green on the next hole and evened up the match. The fourteenth hole was halved.

Then came the break which was the undoing of Flood. On his tee shot, he hooked over the hedge and out of bounds, losing a stroke. His next drive was even with Wright's effort and when they approached, Wright lay a considerable distance from the pin, with Flood near it. Wright holed out a long putt to win the hole. Both men were on the sixteenth green in the two and again Wright won by holing out a long putt.

With the match dormed, Wright and Flood lay close together on the drive to the seventh hole. Wright's ball on the bank of the side of the road, and Flood's out in the fairway. Wright shot to the edge of the green from his difficult position and Flood was about twenty feet away. Wright's next shot was within two feet of the cup and Flood's shot fell just at the edge of the green. Flood missed a long putt from over the edge of the green when it fell short of reaching the cup by about a foot. Wright holed out winning the hole and the match.

All Cemeteries of the War Are Impassively Beautiful

Crosses in the German cemetery of Le Chêne Tendu are artistically fashioned of wood.

Editor's Note: This is chapter 104 of the series of articles by a Journal correspondent who is revisiting France as a scout for the American Legion.

CHAPTER CIV

Cemeteries—American, French, British, German—scattered all through France.

The American—at Surmes, Romagne, Peronne-Taroneis. This account the objectives of the sacred pilgrimage of the American Legion in September, are impressively beautiful. The white wooden crosses, in line from any angle, now are being replaced by crosses of white marble. Gleaning white crosses on backgrounds of green sod—

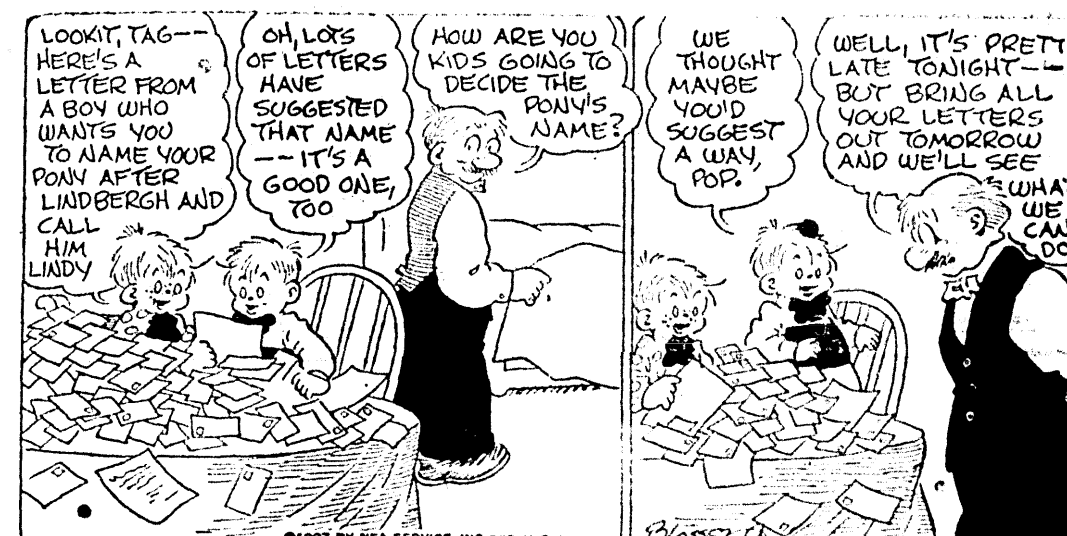

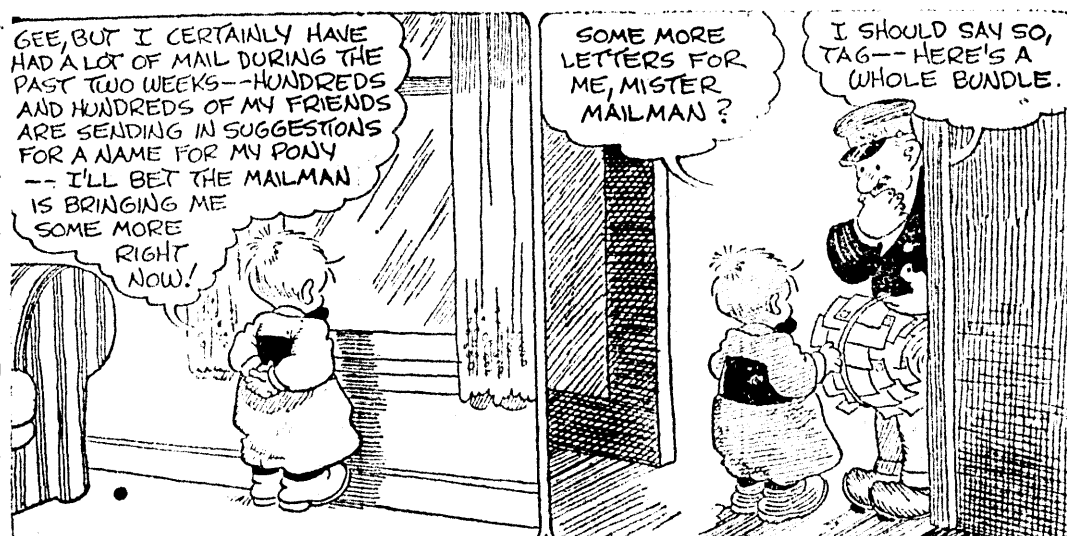

The British—white crosses, too and equally impressive.

The French—white crosses, too and equally impressive. Within a radius of ten miles at a point in the Argonne Forest there are four, with 10,000 graves in each. The caretakers are one-legged men. The German—black crosses. On the road to Dun-sur-Meuse, at Belleau Wood, at Thiaucourt—black crosses, excepting only a cemetery on the famous promontory in the Argonne—Le Chêne Tendu. In this region, for four years, lived the members of the Landwehr regiments, the old men of Germany. They worked at their trades until September, 1918. Then, after the Americans had taken the stronghold they attacked, one morning, in mass formation, and were annihilated.

The crosses on Le Chêne Tendu are fashioned of wood, artistically. The keeper of the cemetery is a Frenchman, Lucien Charbonniere. And he uses the remains of the old wooden chapel as a storehouse for his tools. Cemeteries—American, French, British and German. White crosses and black. And all are impressively beautiful.

AND STILL THE PONY LETTERS COME

My Goodness, Kids—letters, suggesting a name for Tagalong McGoosey's pony have been pouring in for days. And still they come.

You can imagine how surprised the little fellow is! But out of these letters he is going to find a name that will suit his pony.

Turn to "FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS" and just see what the mailman has delivered at the McGoosey home.

The latest letter to be sent in by a Jacksonville reader of "FRECKLES" is Edward Johnston, 1611 Mound Avenue, who sends in the name of "Jacky Cooogan."

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—The stock market after breaking 3 to 16 points on a flood of selling which followed President Coolidge's announcement that he did not choose to be a candidate in 1928, staged one of the most remarkable rallies in recent Wall Street history. Early losses were substantially reduced or wiped out and more than a score issues elevated 1 to 7½ points to new high records. Total sales ran above 23 million shares.

Wall Street was taken completely by surprise. It was generally conceded that politics had been injected as a factor into the financial situation months earlier than had been expected. The market, having advanced almost steadily for twenty consecutive sessions, was ripe for a reaction. Early offerings came largely from the professional traders who desired to cash in at least part of the paper profits amassed during the recent advance and from "bear" operators who have been waiting for some unfavorable market development to resume their selling attacks.

Political news and gossip overshadowed the day's business developments. The weekly steel trade reviews reported further improvement and increases were announced for lead and brass prices. The monthly report of stock exchange member loans showed an increase of $72,728,447 last month bringing the total to a new peak of $3,641,695,240 or nearly $50,000,000 above those at the end of July, 1926.

The sharpest breaks took place in the so-called "blue chip" issues. Dupont opened 15½ points lower at 180, soared to a new record high and then eased to 291. General Motors opened at 222, rallied to 227½ and slipped back to 223½. Similar recoveries took place throughout the list.

Meanwhile pools, heartened by the splendid resistance shown to the president's unexpected announcement started to bid up their favorites in reckless fashion. New peak prices for the year or longer were established by many issues.

Grain, coffee and sugar prices held steady. Foreign exchanges showed little change, all money held at four per cent.

In the bond market convertible issues, which are closely related to stocks, broke sharply at the opening but later received strong support in some instances forged ahead to a new high record prices.
